

The birds and the seeds

One day some birds were flying in the sky, when suddenly they saw some seeds on the ground. They quickly started coming down.

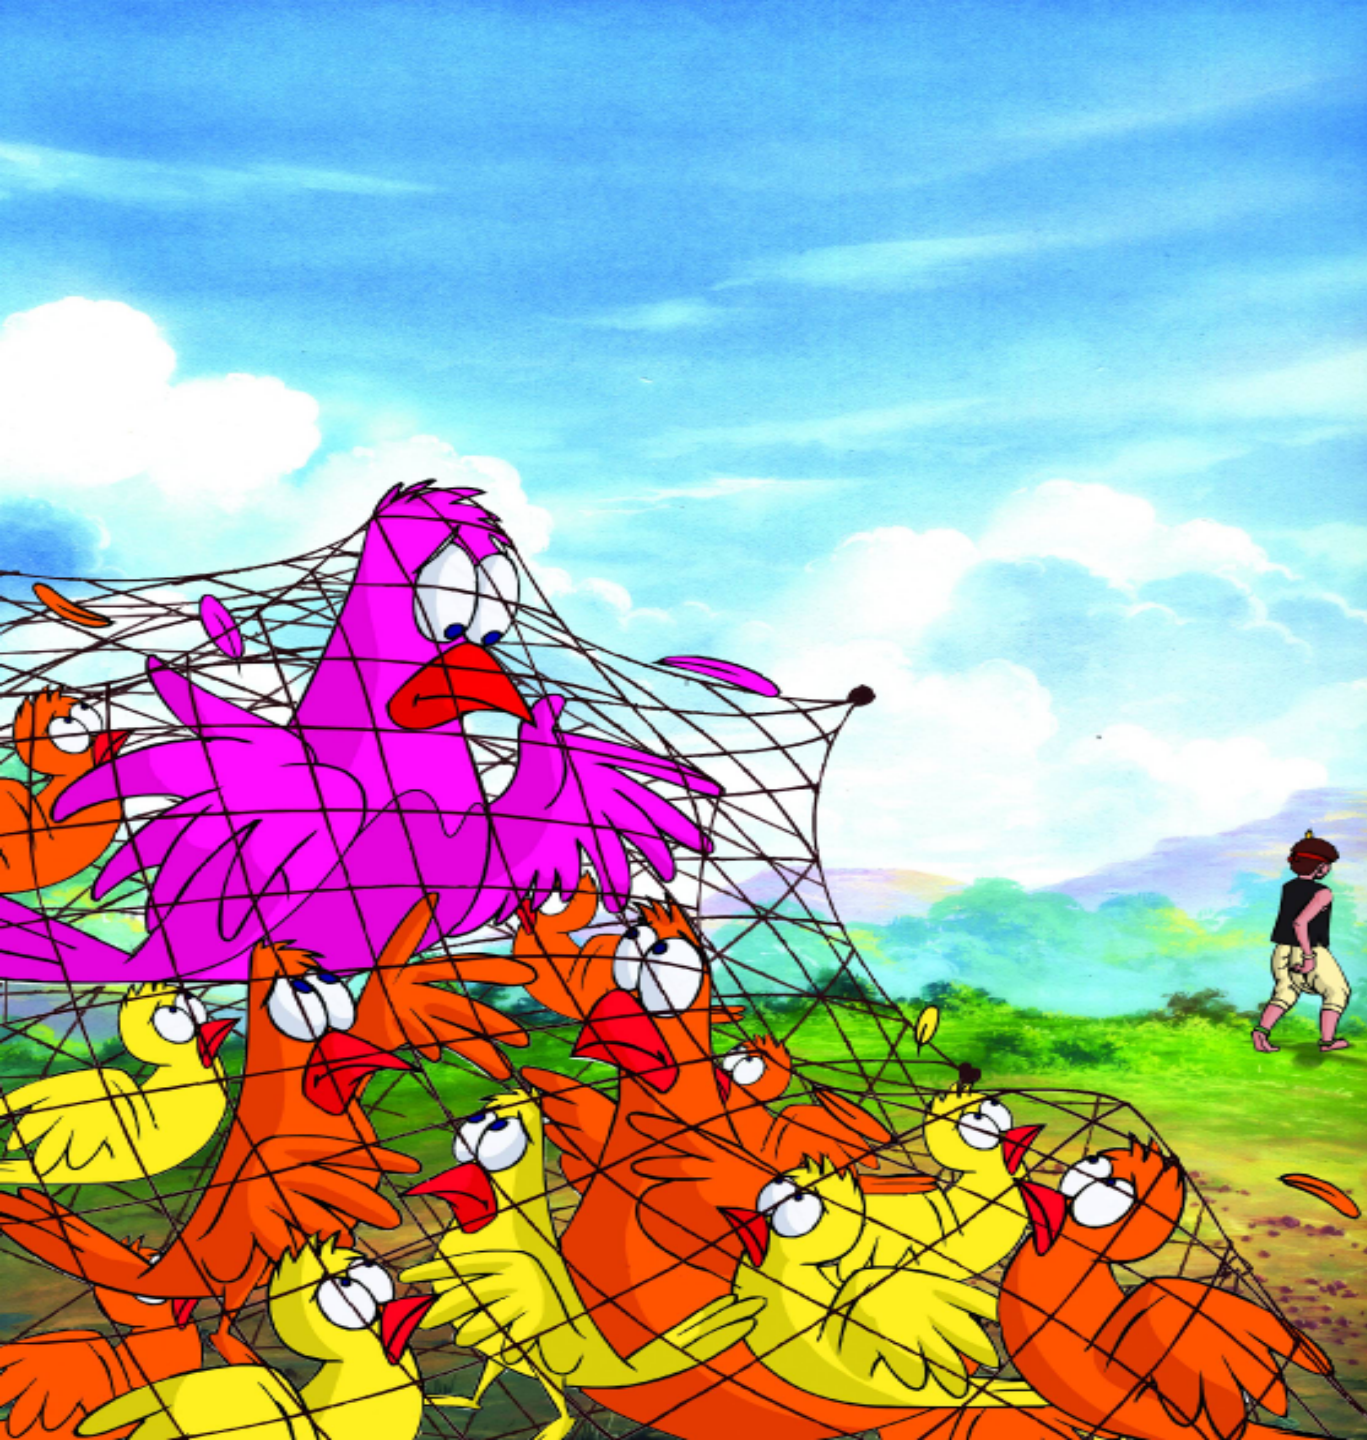

One old and wise bird tried to warn them. “A hunter may have put those seeds down so that he can catch us.” The greedy birds did not listen to him and they came down.

As soon as they came down a
net fell
across
them and
the birds
were trapped.

birds
now
wished
that they were not so
greedy
and listened
to the

We must not be greedy
however nice anything
looks.