

The birds
make a new friend

There was a huge banyan tree.

Many birds
lived on the tree.

There was a large snake that lived in the tree too. He used to eat up the eggs of the birds.

The birds were very angry, "We must make a friend who can kill the snake," they said. So they made friends with

The jackal
came and killed the snake.

The birds
were very happy so they called him to dinner.

The
jackal
came and ate up all
the birds.

The
jackal
came and ate up all
the birds.

We must be careful to choose our friends.
